Washington law permits you to make certain decisions regarding Underinsured Motorists Coverage. This document describes this coverage and the options available. In Washington, a driver who does not have Liability Coverage is considered to be "Underinsured."

You should read this document carefully and ask your agent if you have any questions regarding Underinsured Motorists Coverage and your options with respect to this coverage.

This document includes general descriptions of coverage. However, no coverage is provided by this document. You should read your policy and review your Declarations Page(s) and/or Schedule(s) for complete information on the coverages you are provided.

UNDERINSURED MOTORISTS COVERAGE

Underinsured Motorists Coverage provides insurance protection to an insured for compensatory damages which the insured is legally entitled to recover from the owner or operator of an underinsured motor vehicle because of bodily injury or property damage caused by an automobile accident. Also included are damages due to bodily injury or property damage that result from an automobile accident with a hit-and-run vehicle whose owner or operator cannot be identified.

The sections below must be completed if Limits of Underinsured Motorist Coverage are to be less than Bodily Injury Coverage or are to be rejected completely.

Option A:

I have selected Underinsured Motorist Coverage limits LESS THAN my Bodily Injury Liability Coverage Limits.

Limits selected: (please check one)

- $ 25,000 / $ 50,000
- $ 50,000 / $100,000
- $100,000 / $300,000
- $250,000 / $500,000

Option B:

I reject Underinsured Bodily Injury Motorist Coverage completely.

I understand that the coverage reduction selections above will remain in effect for this policy term, future renewal terms and for policy rewrites, reissue or changes until a Named Insured has requested they be changed in writing.
